Class Song Words—by Robert Bailey Lougee '52

Our High School days are past and gone,
it makes us sad at heart;
New worlds to conquer lie before us,
journeys new to start.
In ev'ry cause and conflict,
we will try to do our part
As we go marching on.

Chorus:

Farewell now to Medfield High School,
Farewell now to Medfield High School,
You will be our inspiration
As we go marching on.

To Medfield High we say farewell,
to friends we bid adieu;
Your guidance and encouragement have helped to see us through.
Though far apart, we'll always be the Class of Fifty Two.
As we go marching on.

Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic

CLASS HISTORY

In 1948 our class, composed of thirty students, began its high school years. As is customary, we inexperienced Freshmen were excited about entering this final, and busiest phase of our public-school education.

Those chosen by the class to represent us during the Freshman year were:

President - Robert Howlett
Vice President - Robert Webster
Treasurer - Therese McCarthy
Secretary - Nancy Stagg

Our admission to the realm of High School life was by means of the initiation of Freshmen by the Juniors, a memorable experience.

Frequently, during the year, the class was invited to enjoy the recreational facilities at Nancy Stagg's house.

During this year, Robert Webster left the class and entered high school at Fryburg, Maine,

After our summer vacation, we looked forward to entering our Sophomore year, although the class now had been reduced to twenty five students.

The class officers during the Sophomore year were:

President - Robert Howlett
Vice President - Marie Vasaturo
Secretary - Nancy Stagg
Treasurer - Therese McCarthy

Toward the end of the year, we received our 1952 class rings. The style was "West Point" with a large "M" engraved above the lettering "Medfield".

It was our privilege, as the Sophomore class, to decorate the auditorium at graduation which has, since then, become a school tradition.

September, 1950, and our Junior administrators were:

President - Marie MacLeod
Vice President - Anne Hinkley
Secretary - Nancy Stagg
Treasurer - Therese McCarthy

During our Junior year, we held several successful events, including the Junior-Freshman Frolic and the Junior Prom.

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held in June. With the Freshman and Sophomore girls as waitresses, our mothers prepared a delicious meal, which was followed by a dance.

At graduation exercises, Nancy Stagg received the History Award and Robert Howlett was presented the Havard Book Award.

After the closing of school, Robert Lougee and Ronald Gorman attended the Boy's State Convention. The girl chosen to represent Medfield High School at Bridgewater was Nancy Nowers.

Entering our last year, the senior leaders were as follows:

President - Ronald Bombelli
Vice President - Robert Howlett
Secretary - Nancy Stagg
Treasurer - Therese McCarthy

Throughout the year, with the splendid cooperation of the Mother's Club, we ran many events for the benefit of the Senior-Class trip.

The class play, "A Case of Springtime" proved to be a tremendous success, as a result of the constant rehearsing and patient direction of Miss McGrath.

Our class ran several record hops which were concluded with one featuring Bob Clayton, one of the most successful high school dance events during the year.

The Class trip, which took place during the week of April 11th, fulfilled expectations of every senior. The itinerary included tours of New York, Washington, and historic places in Virginia and Pennsylvania. We only hope that our Mr. and Mrs. Hastings enjoyed our company half as much as we did theirs. We are indeed fortunate to live in a community such as Medfield, where there is an opportunity to complete our school years in such a way.

Now, having striven through four years of high school, we are approaching the culminating event of our graduation from Medfield High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

I could see International Airport in the distance and I was late again, as usual. "Driver, please hurry, my plane leaves in three minutes." As I looked at the driver more closely, I knew I'd be there on time, for Byron O'Donnell always got there on time.

"Where to, lady?" said Byron, glancing over his shoulder. When Byron finally recognized me, we talked of old times and I was quite surprised to find that Byron was now National Champ in speed boat racing.

I said hurried good-byes to Byron and rushed into the airport. While boarding my plane, I saw the hostess who was, much to my surprise, Charlotte Fenton, who I knew had been a hostess for six years, but I never dreamed she would be on my plane.

After getting settled, I heard the hostess talking excitedly to someone behind me. I turned around to see just what the commotion was about and--of course--Anne Hinkley! Charlotte had arranged it so Anne, who is no longer Anne Hinkley, but Mrs. John Moody, and I could sit together. Then Charlotte proceeded to tell us that Janice Clark had just been elected Woman Athlete of the Year, and was now playing golf in Florida, where she also maintained an agency for Lonely Hearts.

As Charlotte rose to return to her duties as hostess, the plane lurched forward. Anne and I turned around to see if everything was all right, and we found Charlotte picking herself up from the floor. After Charlotte put herself together again, Anne and I began to discuss why we were flying across the country. Anne told me she was going on a special Interior Decorating job in Boston, and had left her little family of red-heads home with their father, Jack Moody, who now was sponsor of the Bilton Merle Show. You know, that program that advertises Moody's high grade, exceptional quality, flawless, pure mahogany toothpicks.

When Anne asked how my race horses were doing, I told her I was taking my trip in order to see one of my best horses, which was now in the care of the most capable veterinarian in the country, a former classmate of ours, Nancy Nowers, who is noted for the breeding of a non-buzzing, non-stinging, non-biting mosquito. The purpose of this little insect is anybody's guess.

Our first stop was Chicago, where a few passengers boarded the plane. Among them was a distinguished looking gentleman, whom we recognized as Bob Cantoreggi, now a Foreign War Correspondent and author of the famous book--Medfield Confidential.

As they changed pilots, we found that the one now taking the plane was Ronald "Jet" Gorman, quite well known for his accomplishments in the field of aviation.

After seeing so many former classmates, Anne and I decided that it would be swell to have a class reunion.

As we were listing the names of the classmates we had already met, Charlotte served us snacks and turned the television on. The very talkative mistress of ceremonies looked and sounded quite familiar, yes--it was Theresie McCarthy who was introducing great celebrities, the first of whom was Nancy Stagg, first woman President of the United States. After Nancy made her campaign speech for re-election, Theresie introduced another celebrity, Robert Lougee, concert pianist, whose beautiful playing added to the nostalgia of the program.

By the time we landed in N.Y., our list of former classmates had begun to amount to something.

Our first day in N.Y. we decided to drop in and see Janet Zullo, designer of the "beaver tail" hair style, which is now sweeping the country. When we told Janet of our plans for a reunion, she was quite eager to help us, as she knew where we could locate Marilyn Park, now doing very well as an Occupational therapist. We were quite amused to find that Marilyn's slogan was "If you are a bum, to Park you should come."

That same evening we stopped at cabins in N.Y. called "The Little Darling Cabins". As we walked into the office, the pleasant smile of Beverly Perrin Darling greeted us. She and her husband owned these comfortable cabins.

The following day, we decided to take in a baseball game. So we went to Cranky Stadium and saw the N.Y. Cranks who were under the able management of Ralph "the Lip" Poli, play the Boston Red Flops, owned and managed by Ronald "Ya can't beat my shnozz" Bombelli.

Being so surprised to see two more of our former classmates, we waited until after the game so we could tell them about the reunion.

When we met them, Ralph introduced us to a very distinguished gentleman sitting in the box right next to the Cranks' dugout. It was Mr. Robert Howlett, famous Wall Street Broker. Bob thought it quite a coincidence in meeting us, because he said that a few nights ago as he attended a dinner party at an executive's home, he discovered that Betty Aylward was working there as a secretary and was hard at work on her latest book on shorthand entitled "Why I Disagree With Mr. Gregg". I'm sure Mrs. Potter would be quite interested in reading this!

We mentioned that we were going to Boston in the morning and Bob suggested that we ride with him, as he was going there on business.

The following morning we left for Boston, and while riding through Connecticut we noticed a new bridge constructed over the Connecticut River. As we rode by we saw the sign which listed the constructors of the new bridge. We found the Chief Engineer to be C. E. Waters. Stopping to see if Charles was around we met his secretary who told us that Charlie was in South Africa building a mission for the Rev. John Varnum whose work had taken him down there. We were quite surprised to find that the Jack Varnum we knew in High School was now a minister and had established an orphanage for homeless Siamese twins in South Africa.

Now our list of classmates for the reunion was complete except for Marie Vasaturo who we all knew was head of the English Department at good old Medfield High School, where her extra curricular duties included being advisor to the student committee for the installation of "Automatic Disposal Ash Trays for the Student Smoker."

Full of plans we arranged one of the most memorable get togethers ever held in Medfield's history.

Marie L. MacLeod
Anne E. Hinkley

Item XV: To Miss Loring, we leave, for her trip to France, the money obtained by cashing in the coke bottles from the various Senior events.

Item XVI: To Mrs. Lambson, we leave rifles and uniforms for the strenuous marching done in gym.

Item XVII: To Mrs. Edwards, we leave a conductor's platform, a pitch pipe, a megaphone, some backless chairs for good posture, and many male voices.

Item XVIII: To Mr. Benton, we wish the original health he had before he met us.

Item XIX: To Mr. Roy, we leave a bundle of good luck charms.

Item XX: To Mrs. Kingsbury, we leave a carload of shingles for her new home.

Item XXI: To Robert Dunn, Byron O'Donnell leaves his ability to get along with the girls. Und how!!

Item XXII: To Dot Clark, her sister Janice leaves her bus drivers.

Item XXIII: To Sally Colantonio, Marilyn Park leaves her ability to keep quiet.

Item XXIV: To Jere Hutchins, Bob Cantoreggi leaves a new pack of cards.

Item XXV: To Lois Harmon, Robert Lougee leaves a box of Evening in Paris face powder to help her cover up a few of her many blushes.

Item XXVI: To Charlie Thayer, Charlie Waters leaves his "dynamic tension."

Item XXVII: To John Wilson and John Anderson, Ronnie Bombelli and Ralph Poli leave their athletic abilities.

Item XXVIII: To Randy DeForest, Nancy Stagg leaves a large supply of gum to replace all that he has given out.

Item XXIX: To Joe Roberts and Bob Kennedy, we leave two shiny new spades for their work in the cemetery.

Item XXX: To Ruthie McKinnon, Marie Vasaturo leaves her pleasant, never-ending smile.

Item XXXI: To Lawrence Nye, Bob Howlett leaves his stilts.

Item XXXII: To Joan Mick and John D'Antonio, Anne Hinkley and Jack Moody leave a bottle of glue to keep them glued together through school.

Item XXXIII: To Chuckie Muntoe, Therese McCarthy passes down her title as "Rudy's best pal."

Item XXXIV: To Mousie Weston, Janet Zullo leaves a heavy cord to help him keep track of his pencils.

Item XXXV: To Margaret Malloy, Marie MacLeod leaves her fine record in sports.

Item XXXVI: To Dottie Aylward, her sister Betty leaves her manicuring set.

Item XXXVII: To Richard Fenton, his sister Charlotte leaves a sack to keep his money in.

Item XXXVIII: To Russell Suereth, Beverly Perrin leaves a rocket to get to school on time.

Item XXXIX: To her twin brothers, Nancy Nowers leaves twin boomerangs so that they won't know "who hit who."

Item XL: To Mort Evans, Jackie Varnum leaves his slightly used Crosley.

Item XLI: To John O'Leary, Ronald Gorman Leaves his beard.

Item XLII: To Charlie Thayer and Jim Callachan, Jack Moody and Charlie Waters leave their smoking corner.

We, the undersigned, soberly and hazely declare this to be our Last Will and Testament in the presence of unvouched for and undermined witnesses, and do proclaim this proclamation to be a proclamation.

Junior Class

We began our Junior year by choosing our class officers. The results were as follows:

President - Jeanine Bravo
Vice President - Clifford Bosselman
Secretary - Janet Mezzanotte
Treasurer - Joan Rick

In September we began planning for our "Freshman Frolic" which took place on October 19, 1951. We had very colorful decorations and there was a dance afterward.

The next thing to plan for was our "Junior Prom" which took place on May 2, 1952. We had a grand march, headed by the four class officers. King and queen were chosen, and Shirley Gronberg and Donny Cox were crowned. Afterward, the majority of the students went to the Meadows.

We ran our first Record Hop on April 16th. A paper drive was held on May 11th. The Junior - Senior Banquet took place on May 26th. A delicious turkey dinner was served and a Record Hop followed.

Janet Mezzanotte, Secretary

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Class

We began our Sophomore year by choosing our class officers. The results were as follows:

President - Donald Tompkins
 Vice President - John Wilson
 Secretary - John Anderson
 Treasurer - Margaret Molloy

Our activities to date were two class parties held at Louise Fisher's house on February 8 and at Barbara Bowker's house on April 18. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

On March 21, the Senior and Sophomore Class combined their efforts to run a Bob Clayton Record Hop. It was a great success as over 200 people were present.

Halfway through the school year we gained three new members: Francis Brown from Millis High School, Charles Monroe from Roslindale High School, and Henry DeForest from St. Andrew's School in Tennessee.

The four Safety Patrol members from our class are: Louise Fisher, John O'Leary, Donald Tompkins and John Anderson. Barbara Bowker and John O'Leary are members of the Student Council.

We have had a very enjoyable year under Mrs. Pederzini, our home room teacher.

John Anderson, Secretary

Freshman Class

When the school year started three new members joined our class, Herbert Smith and Kenneth Carpenter, followed by Sandra Pelon a few weeks later.

At our first class meeting, the following officers were elected:

President - Kenneth Carpenter
Vice President - Arthur Milton
Secretary - William Reynolds
Treasurer - Leslie Howlett

In November Kenneth Carpenter left school and moved, so Margaret Thibau was elected President.

Our Student Council members are Leslie Howlett and Nancy Frame and on the Safety Patrol, we are represented by Nancy Frame, Herbert Smith, Leslie Howlett, and William Reynolds.

During the year we have enjoyed many social gatherings. Most important, of course, was our initiation by the Juniors.

Several members of the class have shown a strong interest in sports with both boys and girls taking an active part in school athletics.

Our Class rings have been ordered and it is hoped that delivery will be made before the end of the school year.

It has been a very pleasant year for all of us with Mr. Bergeron as our homeroom teacher in Room 209.

Billy Reynolds, Secretary

ATHLETICS

Football

The Football season for Medfield this year was one of building up the Club. Most of the boys were novices at the sport, thus inexperienced. Medfield lost the first three games and then beat a heavier and more experienced Wayland team 6-0.

That was the only win for the season, as the Medfield eleven dropped the next three in a row. The season's record was one win and six defeats. The touchdowns were made by Frank Clewes, 2; John D'Antonio, 2; and Charles Evans with Ralph Poli scoring the extra points.

Ronald Bombelli was the team's captain and a good one.

Basketball Team

The Basketball season this year was not a very successful one as the Medfield Five won 3 and lost 11. The Jay-Vee's did better, winning 10 and losing 4.

High scorers for the first team were Ronald Bombelli, 149; John D'Antonio, 108; Ralph Poli, 76; Charles Evans, 86; Jack Moody, 84; Robert Howlett, 42; and Norris Weston, 12. For the second team were: John Wilson, 139; John Anderson, 108; Frank Clewes, 79; Russell Suerreth, 78; Billy Reynolds, 41; and James Callachan, 39.

Ralph Poli was elected Captain of the team this season, 1951-52, and did a wonderful job.

The all star game was played at Weston and the All Stars won 41-39. Ronald Bombelli played on the first team. Jack Moody and Ralph Poli played on the second team. Coach Mains scored 31 points for the League Coaches.

Girl's Basketball Team

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team had a very successful year under the coaching of Mrs. Lamson. The Varsity won five games and lost three. Jeanine Bravo was the captain of the second team and Marilyn Park of the first team. Marilyn Park was high scorer for the season with 116 points. The first game was with Westwood. Medfield won 49-19. On January 14, Holliston lost to Medfield 29-27. This was an exciting game until the last seconds of the game.

On January 16th, the Varsity met Dover and continued to be undefeated by beating them 52-26. The next game with Millis was a heartbreaking one for the Varsity, but it was a close game. Millis won 22-19. On January 24th, the Varsity went to Westwood for the second game and beat them 34-16. The next contest the Varsity lost to Millis with the score 32-11. The next clash was the third game the Varsity lost. This one was with Holliston by a score of 35-34.

The last game of the season was with Dover and the Varsity won by a tight score, 29-28. The Jay-Vee's only lost 2 games all season.

This year we have three Seniors leaving, Marilyn Park, Marie MacLeod, and Janet Zullo. We hope that the season of 1952-53 will be a successful one.

BASEBALL

Medfield in Baseball has chance of winning the league champion if they win the remaining games. In the first three games the record was 1 win and 2 defeats but could have easily be 3 wins and 0 defeats had the defense been good. We beat Hopedale in the first game but lost to Millis and Westwood. The baseball team is looking forward to a good year. Coach Charles Mains has done a good job with the team.

Ronald Bombelli served as the captain of the team. Ronald Bombelli, Ralph Poli, Jack Moody and Bob Howlett are the Seniors playing for the team.

This year the baseball team used the new field which is located behind the school.
